This is a great website for tips for both children and parents who are starting a new school. We hope you enjoy exploring it!

The screenshot shows the BBC Bitesize website interface. At the top, the 'Bitesize' logo is on the left, and a 'Change language' button is on the right. Below the logo is a navigation menu with links for 'Home', 'Daily lessons', 'Learn', 'Support', and 'Careers'. To the right of this menu are 'My Bitesize' and 'All Bitesize' options. A secondary navigation bar contains links for 'Exams & revision', 'Uni, college & apprenticeships', 'Life & wellbeing', 'Starting primary school' (which is highlighted), and 'Starting secondary school'. The main content area is titled 'Starting primary school' and features three featured items: 1. 'BUD'S NUMBER GARDEN' with a cartoon bee character and numbers 1 and 2. 2. 'Game - My First Day at School' with a cartoon illustration of children. 3. 'Planning for transition when schools are closed' with a photograph of a man standing in front of a school building. The Windows taskbar is visible at the bottom of the browser window.
