

Reporting back...

- Amazing teachers who truly care and are engaged. We also appreciated the open classroom and the opportunity to see what children are learning
- That it provides my children with a happy and safe start to their school life, it gives them a love of learning.
- We are also really grateful for the opportunities to engage with our children's learning.
- A tight -knit community, the children feeling safe and myself having confidence that Oakwood has great teachers and provides an excellent education
- The children receive encouragement to learn
The school has the children's best interests at heart
- I think the school handles SEN children well
- We are aware that some primary schools are having difficulty retaining teaching staff resulting in churn during the year and a succession of supply teachers. Oakwood has done well in ensuring continuity of teaching staff throughout the year.
- The spacious outdoor area with a good range of equipment, the small classes in EYFS, the fact the children mix with different groups of children in their class each year to develop their social skills
- Our students love going to school and they have always been inspired by great teachers
- School community- lots of wider activities going on for children and parents to get involved in (Oakwood Olympics)
- The teachers are enthusiastic and care about pupils learning. There are good facilities in the school.
- Teachers are quick to pick up with parents if there is a challenge or issue
- Ms Buckley and Ms Thompson are accessible and diligent.
- I trust that if there is an issue, I will be contacted.
- A real community feel to the school. Caring teachers with good open communication to parents. A constant drive to improve children's learning experience
- The different events/activities/workshops provided for the children and the fact that some of them are funded.
- The commitment to all children's development, both academically, but in PSHEE too, additionally the SENCO support is brilliant.
- Jousters
- School meals are well received
- Proximity to where we live and thus being part of a supportive community
- The friendships that the children develop with their year group and those above and below.
- Sense of community and the balance of academics with pastoral care and education.
- We also value the efforts by the PTA to provide experiences and resources for the school.
- I value the teaching team and TA's and the after school clubs.
- The children are polite and have good manners
- the PTA make a lot of effort to help raise money. The field is amazing. Love the special history off the page type days
- We so much appreciate those teachers who have gone above and beyond and who really ignite enthusiasm amongst the children for learning
- We appreciate the positive discipline and the growth mindset attitude that seems to be very consistent at Oakwood.
- Caring environment.
